Re: Reference letter for the employment of Gina Elefante '

To Whom It May Concern:

Gina has been working with our family for just over 1.5 years, the time we have been in Hong Kong. She has taken care of all the household duties and looked after our 2 sons (5 and 10 years) with great love and attention.

Gina has a lovely relaxed, kind, and caring personality along with fabulous English and is very enjoyable to talk with. She works independently and with intuition but also follows guidelines and instructions extremely well.

Gina has been working in Hong Kong for 20+ years with both Chinese and Western families and has been a great help for me knowing how to get to places and where to source certain household items, foods, and services.

I trust her completely not only with our children but with our house and taking care of everything that is a part of our family. The kids love her and she has a lovely relationship with them. She is happy to be as involved and active with them, especially our younger boy or more hands off and supervisory, like with our older son.

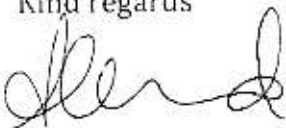

Gina loves to cook and has a wide range of dishes in her repertoire, plus is very capable of following home recipes and cookbooks. Some of the dishes she cooks for us are dumplings; stir fries, pastas, soups, bread and cookies.

We wish Gina all the best for the future and know that we will remain in contact with her in the years to come.

Kind regards
