Re: Mrs Eufemia Rabang

To whom this may concern:

Eufemia has been in our employment as Domestic Helper from 18th ~~January~~ ^{February} 2016 until 17th March 2017.

She has always provided a great service in looking after our two young daughters, and has worked very hard to help maintain our household while remaining discreet and allowing us the freedom to enjoy our privacy when needed the most.

Eufemia has worked with honesty, integrity and has proved to be a very caring person.

We are ending our professional relationship with Eufemia as we are leaving Hong Kong permanently.

In this time, we will endeavor to assist her in finding employment, and wish her the very best moving forward.

Whoever employs Eufemia in the future will appreciate the service and smiles she brings with her.

I can be contacted for any verification of this character reference by email –

Sincerely,
