

To whom it may concern:

Cristy is honest, hardworking and reliable. She has a cheerful, kind disposition and will ask questions if she is not sure of my instructions.

She has done a great job taking care of the elderly, preparing meals, and housekeeping over the last 5 contracts. As our family will relocate for good, which unfortunately means Cristy is looking for another job.

I would not hesitate to recommend her to any employer.

Regards,

A large, dark, irregular redaction mark covers the signature area, obscuring the name and any handwritten notes.