

Recommendation Letter

To Whom It May Concern,

Our family has got to know Rozie over the past five months and are needing to end our contract prematurely. We're writing this letter to help future employers know what will makes Rozie a great fit for their family.

Before hiring Rozie, we connected with her previous family with which she was employed for nine years. This family who had three kids just like our family, and I can attest to how all six kids who have spent time with Rozie have a fondness and love for her. Even while staying with us her previous family has stayed in touch and invited her over for dinner demonstrating the loving relationship she built. She is extremely kind and caring when it comes to entrusting her with your little ones, and that alone is priceless. In addition to our three kids, Rozie has also been in charge of keeping our home tidy. Without missing a step my wife and I come home from work every day to a friendly greeting and a clean and organized flat.

So, if you're looking for a helper who is trustworthy, will love your kids with kindness, and help care for you home, Rozie would be a great addition to your family.

Sincerely,
