Almau Valdez Morcimas

Almau is honest, hardworking and reliable.

She speaks good English, has a cheerful disposition and will ask questions if she isn't sure of instructions.

She has done a great job looking after our big family (my husband, 3 kids and myself) and our house (3 floors + garden) over the last 2 years.

My husband company is unexpectedly relocating us back to Europe, which means Almau is looking for a new employer. Almau can cook the recipes I provide and she is good at following all our dietary requirements. She can be trusted with grocery shopping and she keeps the house very clean.
