To whom it might concern:

Ms NURJANAH has been working for us since December 2020. It is with great sadness that we need to end her contract as our family is being relocated to France. Her main duties were to cook, do the grocery (market and supermarket) and handle all kind of housework's, in a household of three: 2 working parents and a teenager.

Ms NURJANAH is really dedicated to her work and has a peasant personality. She pays attention to detail, not only like to follow instruction but naturally take initiatives when needed.

Her cooking ability is excellent for both western and Asian food. Jana did prepare balanced and tasty meals for our (picky) family. She frequently prepared independently dinner parties for our guests with good sense of organization, including presentation. She can follow a recipe without difficulty. She is very skilled to cook any kind of cuisine!

Furthermore, she has been able to work independently to keep our large home (2000 SQF) in clean and tidy. She is hard working and manage all household related duties such as shopping, cleaning, ironing, organization ... She can work around a budget (weekly petty cash) and prioritizes task/needs well.

The only reason for her to release her is that we will be relocated. Her released date is June 2022 (exact date TBC)

I have no hesitation to recommend Jana as a trustful and dedicated person. I wish her all the best in the future. For further information and reference I can be reached at
