Dear New Employer,

I am writing to heartily recommend ROSE [Redacted] IO, who has served as a domestic helper in my home for the past five years. During their employment, ROSE [Redacted] [Redacted] has shown exemplary skills in household tasks, from cleaning, laundry, cooking, and providing excellent care to my dog.

ROSE [Redacted] is adept at handling various household tasks and is also known for her reliability, time management skills, and impeccable work ethic. She is a quick learner, adapts to new situations seamlessly, and is always eager to take on new tasks and responsibilities.

Unfortunately, our family will be leaving Hong Kong this September. However, I am confident that ROSE [Redacted] will perform her duties diligently and meet and exceed your expectations.

Yours sincerely,
