To Whom It May Concern

Ms Bagorio, Yen Prudencio has worked as our domestic helper from August 2017 to 24 December 2024.

Yen is an alert, determined and enthusiastic individual. She is friendly and always smiles even when I assign loads of duties to her. In fact, she gets along well with all of my family members.

Whatever duties I assign to her, she is capable of handling them well. She is also a good cook who can cook the food after watching YouTube videos. Her food is always praised by my guests. She always designs different kinds of special delicious dishes for us.

I take pleasure in recommending her and wish her a bright future.
