To whom it may concern

It is with great pleasure that I write this letter of recommendation for Jabonitalla, Amalia Toralba, who has served my family from August 2015.

Amalia is reliable and arrange household chores in good order. She undertakes a wide range of responsibilities, including daily housekeeping, laundry, grocery shopping and meal preparation. She can cook Chinese foods and soups, and can follow recipes for new dishes. She also provided school and recreational activities drop-off/pick-up for my daughter. For the past 5 years, she has been the primary caregiver for my mother-in-law who is over 95 years old. Her duties included preparing soft meals, assisting with bathing and personal hygiene, helping with diaper changes and mobility.

Amalia is looking for another job as my mother-in-law passed away in early January 2025. I recommend her for any caregiving, household management or domestic role. Please feel free to contact me for further reference if needed.
