To Whom It May Concern,

Personal Recommendation for Domestic Employment

I am pleased to write this referral letter on behalf of Maria, whom I have had the privilege of employing from 2011 to 2020 and then from June 2023 to present day.

Maria's kind, loving and patient nature make her a truly outstanding caregiver. She began working for my family in 2011 and cared for both of my children with great dedication and warmth throughout their formative years, continuing until 2020 when she chose to return to the Philippines for personal reasons. Maria is attentive and nurturing, always ensuring my children's safety and well-being. Her ability to create a positive and supportive environment helped my children thrive, and her honest and trustworthy nature gave me complete peace of mind when I leave them in her care.

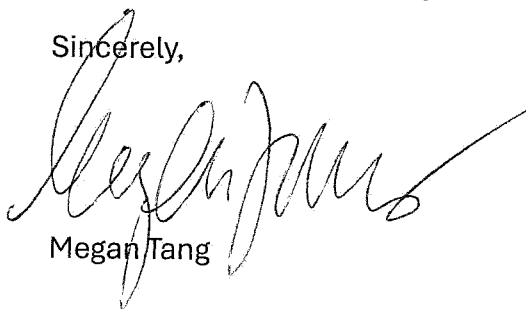

In 2023, when I needed to hire someone to look after my elderly father who suffered from advanced Alzheimer's disease, I contacted Maria. The role required immense patience, empathy, and resilience. My father could sometimes be demanding and difficult to care for, yet Maria never lost her temper and was always patient and loving towards him. Her ability to manage challenging situations with grace and kindness is truly exceptional.

Among Maria's many strengths, I would like to highlight her good nature, her willingness to follow instructions, and her unwavering commitment to the well-being of those in her care. When looking after my young children and elderly father, Maria has always made them her highest priority.

I am releasing Maria from her employment solely because my father passed away recently.

I am confident that Maria will make valuable contributions to any home and recommend her without reservation. Please feel free to contact me at +852-6146 0668 if you require any further information.

Sincerely,
