

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to write this reference letter for Jenneth Samong, who has been our domestic helper since June 2019. During her time with us, she has been a dedicated and reliable member of our household.

Jenneth has been responsible for a wide range of household duties, including cleaning, cooking, laundry, grocery shopping, and general household management. She has also assisted in childcare, ensuring a safe and nurturing environment for our children. Now that our children have grown up, we no longer require a full-time helper, which is the only reason for ending her contract.

She is a kind and soft-spoken individual with a positive attitude. She follows instructions well, is trustworthy, and carries out her responsibilities with diligence and care. We have always found her to be respectful, hardworking, and pleasant to have around.

I highly recommend Jenneth to any prospective employer seeking a dependable and kind domestic helper. If you require any further information, please feel free to contact me (bootnokka@hotmail.com).

Sincerely,

Tod Su
