TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Dear Sir/Madam

CURATCHADO, Rosa

This letter is to sincerely recommend Ms. Curatchado, who has worked as our full-time domestic helper in our family since November 2022. Due to change of our family structure, we will release her at the end of the contract.

During her employment with us, she has performed all domestic duties responsibly, diligently and reliably. Her main responsibilities included general household cleaning, laundry, ironing, grocery shopping, cooking and assisting with daily family routines, especially in taking care of our pets, one dog and two cats.

Ms. Curatchado is honest, trustworthy, polite and patient who is also willing to assist our grandma during her illness. Her cooking skill is fabulous, especially on seafood dishes and dessert. She is a competent domestic helper and we have no hesitation in recommending her to any future employer.

Should you require any further information, please feel free to contact me.

Yours faithfully

Ali n June
