To whom it may concern,

I am writing to recommend Aida Templonuevo, who worked for us as a domestic helper from May 2019 – October 2022. We are terminating her contract with us only because we are departing Hong Kong permanently.

As an employee, Aida is extremely reliable, independent and hardworking. Her main responsibility has been our now 6-year old rescue dog, Loki, who has separation anxiety and is very reactive on walks. Aida has been an amazing carer for our dog – patient, careful and very considerate of our family's needs. We have left Loki in her care while overseas for up to 6 weeks at a time and have never had to worry once, she looks after him as though he is her own and he absolutely adores her.

She has been able to identify and flag potential medical issues with Loki so we could take him to the vet in a timely manner. In addition, she ensures he gets plenty of playtime and exercise even in the summer months, while being mindful of the heat and humidity.

Outside of caring for Loki, Aida is excellent at cooking, cleaning and managing the household. She excels with any recipe and can manage meal planning, purchasing ingredients and cooking independently. She is also creative with ingredients on hand. She keeps our house spotless, usually with minimal instruction or guidance from us. She is extremely hardworking, always looking for something to do and it is very rare to see her idle.

Aida is also a talented gardener and genuinely enjoys it. She has experience growing fruits, veggies, herbs and other crops and has raised a thriving garden on our apartment balcony in the past.

She is very good at following instructions and her memory is exceptional, she rarely needs to be told something twice.

Aida's current salary is $8,000 HKD per month from us. She has never taken a sick day in her employment with us.

We would highly recommend Aida to any future employer, she is a rare gem and has never let us down. It is with great regret that we are ending her contract, we certainly would have kept her on with us if we were not leaving Hong Kong.
