To Whom It May Concern,

Reference Letter for Ms. Ba t Nina Ma [Hong Kong Identity No.: WX )].

I am writing to provide a reference for Nina, who has worked as a full-time live-in domestic helper in our household for the past year, from 18 December 2025 to 17 November 2026. We are terminating the contract simply because my elderly father has now recovered, and our family no longer requires full-time assistance.

During her time with us, Nina was primarily responsible for elder care and general household chores. Her greatest strength lies in her work with the elderly. She showed remarkable patience, genuine care, and kindness when attending to my father. She was truly happy for my father's recovery, and her warm heart and faith were greatly appreciated by our family.

In terms of household duties, Nina is willing to help and can perform basic chores. While her cooking and housekeeping skills are basic and would benefit from clear guidance and routine instruction, she works best under structured supervision.

We are grateful for her support and care for my father during his recovery period. We wish her all the best in her future employment.

Sincerely,

W ai
